PEEK AT THE WEEK

Colleen DiSanto

God, Please help me to get through change and move on. Help me to get into high school that fits me. As I grow older, help me to make the right choices and do the right thing. When a challenge confronts me, stand by my side to support me. When I need to make a big decision, lead me the right way. Give me the courage to try new things. Be there to listen when I'm sad or mad. Grant me time to spend with my loved ones. And finally, show me how to forgive others the way you forgive me. Thank you for all the blessings you have given me, and the blessings to come. Amen. - Member of the 8th grade class
